- With insights not hind-sights as to why leaders can't get stuff done.
- Pumped up, excited and energized to make things happen.
- Entertained and fired up to dump old thinking and imagine the possibilities.
- Proud of themselves and their affiliation with your organization.
- With a bold Belief and Conviction — Hands-On Execution is the Foundation of Success.
- With a rekindled sense of adventure and urgency to get stuff done fast.
- With tools and tactics to help you improve your performance.
- With a desire to implement a philosophy of “Let's Do It” — “Consider It Done.”

I Pledge To Customize My Program To Your Audience:

- With a one-of-a-kind memorable program which is personalized for your audience, reinforces your conference theme and focuses on the issues and challenges they are facing.
- By interviewing via telephone a cross section of audience members prior to my program to achieve greater impact and provide stories they can relate to.
- To provide a high energy environment where everyone has a great time; and laughs while they learn.

I Pledge To Present Relevant Content:

- Original, thought provoking information with real-world business examples.
- A cross industry perspective and practical content which can be immediately applied to their business.
- Success stories and lessons on how great leaders and their organizations implement strategies, plans and ideas to develop a culture of doers vs talkers.
- A behind the scenes look at “how leaders screw up and then overcome it.”

I Pledge To Provide Value Added:

- Articles and marketing products to promote and increase attendance at your conference.
- A customized blueprint on how to rethink all business assumptions and practices to make more money.
- Debriefing summary, high-lighting comments from my pre-program interviews.
- Bonus program for your board of directors, sponsors and vendors.

I Pledge To Be A Speaker In Partnership:

- Easily accessible prior to and after the program to answer any questions.
- Hassle free and easy to work with, I'll deliver on my promise.
- Deliver a program that goes off without a hitch.

It's not enough to talk a good game you've got to make it happen.
